Randall Shepard Academy Requests Assistance from Law and Social Justice Organizations

The Randall Shepard Academy for Law and Social Justice, one of the Evansville Vanderburgh School Corporation's newest academic options for high school juniors and seniors opening in Fall 2010, is planning a Stakeholder's Meeting on Wednesday, April 7 at 7 p.m. in the Harrison High School Media Center.

The academy is seeking any organization, agency, law firm, or business interested in supporting the two-year program which integrates social studies and English curriculum for juniors and seniors who are interested in law and social justice.

Possible ways stakeholders can help include:

- Volunteer
- Present information related to their field
- Provide opportunities or field trips for students
- Mentor students (similar to job shadowing)
- Other

At the event, teachers for the Academy will present an overview of curriculum and anticipated needs for stakeholders. For additional information, contact Tammy Dexter at 812-474-4120.
