

The EVSC now subscribes to the World Book Web. The World Book Web includes:

- World Book Kids—the premier general reference Web site developed especially for younger users.
- World Book Student—includes all articles from the 22-volume World Book Encyclopedia, plus thousands of additional articles and more than 20,000 pictures, maps, videos, and sounds, and a Spanish-language encyclopedia.
- World Book Advanced—tailored for the needs of older students, it includes encyclopedic content, e-books, multimedia, a vast collection of primary source documents, and a wealth of research tools that allow students to customize and save their work.
- World Book Discover—designed for students reading below grade level, this site includes reference articles, text-to-speech capabilities, research and translation tools, and multimedia.
- Enciclopedia Estudiantil Hallazgos—the optimal beginner’s Spanish language reference site.

Our World Book subscription allows us to give access to this valuable reference source from home computers 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. To access the World Book Web from home, follow these simple steps:

1. Go to the World Book web site: <http://www.worldbookonline.com>
2. In the Login ID box, type in: evscschools
3. In the Password box, type in: evscschools

Please remember that login and password information is for students and their families only, and extending this information to people who do not live within the school district could result in loss of at-home access for our students. The logon information should not be posted on the EVSC web site.

There are video tutorials available at <http://www.worldbookonline.com/training/html/webinars.htm>. In addition we will be providing hands on training on November 24th at 1:30 PM and 3:30 PM in the Central High School Media Center Lab.

Register for one of these sessions with Becky Conner at rebecca.conner@evsc.k12.in.us, or phone 435-8254.
